

amazon
ALIVE

'Rainforest Yurt'

Sponsored by THE LIVING RAINFOREST

When entering the "Rainforest Yurt" festival visitors will see... hear ... smell...

- a miniature "jungle" of plants, trees and hanging plants
- the sounds of the jungle inside
- tropical insect displays - from 'The Living Rainforest'
- the Resonance Radio "Insect Art" installation (with daily performances) where insect objects re-create the sounds of their real-life counterparts
- audio/visual screenings along Rainforest-related themes
- exotic fruits and plants, for kids to discover what we 'owe' to the rainforests
- a 'Discover Ants & Butterflies' Section - Including an "Ant Competition"
- Daily 'talks and demonstrations' by EXPERTS on plants, insects and other rainforest related fields
- Daily performances of the 'Rainforest Jam' - persuasion and improvisation from renowned Alua Nascimento (Brazil) and Matt Lewis (London) to the sounds of Amazon tribal music
- an 'Information Booth' so that visitors can take away further pamphlets is an entirely voluntary and not-for-profit organisation promoting knowledge and awareness of the Amazon Rainforest and it's human communities

The Amazon Alive! Team was invited to organise the "Rainforest Yurt" at Festival - contributing to the spirit of 'creative conservation, art and science'

Amazon Alive! will be involved in further public engagements in 2006

The For further information on Amazon Alive! or forthcoming events in 2006 please contact Matt Currington or Clair Pengelly

Matt Currington
T: 0208 741 4586
M: 07773 73 30 41
E: matt@mattcurrington.com

Clair Pengelly
M: 07966 923 207
E: clair.pengelly@globaleventpictures.com